

THE SIMON EVANS WAY

Guide additions: 24.11.06

Page 2: This Guide is dedicated to Adrian Pearce, founding member of the Cleobury Mortimer Footpath Association, who shared with Simon Evans a great love of the River Rea countryside.

Page 19: Unfortunately both The New Inn and the Oreton Post Office have closed since the publication of this Guide.

Page 19: At Little Stocking the brick kiln, one of the oldest in the countryside, has recently (Nov 2006) been rebuilt. If you are interested in a site visit, please contact Ann or Trevor Sutton (01746 718266) in order to arrange access.
